

Become a member of

THE OXFORDSHIRE LOCAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION (OLHA)

The association for everyone interested in local history in Oxfordshire

As a member of OLHA you will:

- Receive our monthly e-bulletin, full of up-to-date information on what's happening in local history across Oxfordshire, plus a diary of events, talks and meetings.
- Receive our journal once a year, containing reviewed articles by Oxfordshire local historians on a wide range of topics.
- Have the opportunity to publish your own research in that journal.
- Be able to attend two study days a year, each on a specific topic and with several speakers and a guided tour.
- Be in touch with other local historians working in your area.

Membership costs only £11 a year for individuals or for two people living at the same address; £13 a year for societies.

To join, please complete the form overleaf and return it to:
Liz Woolley, OLHA membership secretary, 138 Marlborough Road,
Oxford OX1 4LS; 01865 2426760; membership@olha.org.uk

Alternatively, go to www.olha.org.uk/join-or-renew/ to pay on-line.
